

A three-layer chocolate cake is presented on a light-colored wooden cake board. Each layer is a thick, dark brown chocolate cake. Between the layers and on top, there are generous dollops of white whipped cream. The top layer is decorated with a ring of cream dollops, some of which are dusted with brown powder. Two bright red cherries are placed on top. A gold-colored 'Happy Birthday' topper is stuck into the center of the cake. The background is softly blurred, showing a green plant and a wooden surface.
